

The power of the co-operative

A newly formed company established by EMP Industries to bring marina products from major suppliers under one quality-conscious umbrella, created considerable interest at this year's International Marina & Boatyard Conference (IMBC) 30th January - 1st February, Florida.

The power of the co-operative

A newly formed company established by EMP Industries to bring marina products from major suppliers under one quality-conscious umbrella, created considerable interest at this year's International Marina & Boatyard Conference (IMBC), 30th January - 1st February, Florida.

Best Marine Solutions (BMS), a one-stop-shop for marina operators seeking top products with guaranteed service back-up, has been at planning stages the best service history. Quality control for everything we sell is paramount, the service element is also critical, Callahan stresses. "We are commi

Tom Callahan (inset) and the Best Marine Solutions team generated great interest in product line up at IMBC in January

